

kWickview: Online Energy Monitor

Track and manage your business energy usage online.

What is kWickview?

kWickview is an online tool from SDG&E® that provides energy use data via the Internet to businesses with special interval data recorder (IDR) meters. The energy use data is measured in 15 minute intervals over a 24-hour period, and can be downloaded and viewed the next morning.

Who can use kWickview?

kWickview is available to business customers with an installed IDR meter with communications capabilities. Also, business customers participating in a Demand Response program have access to kWickview.

Is special software needed to use kWickview?

No, kWickview is a web-based online tool.

All you need is a computer with Internet access and a web browser.

What can I do with kWickview?

kWickview can help you track and manage your energy usage online. Here's some of the things you can do with kWickview:

- Load profile comparisons – know when and how you are using energy. Conduct detailed analysis with pinpoint accuracy.
- View usage history – view daily, weekly or monthly total consumption and peak demand. View usage over different time periods.
- Run energy-use comparisons – compare individual meters or sites, or group them for side-by-side analysis. You can also normalize data to help put comparison data in better context.

- Export data – view data as graphs or charts, and export them into a spreadsheet program or into a PDF. You can also have reports automatically emailed to you at pre-determined intervals.

How do I access kWickview?

You can either:
