

ALBANIAN ELECTRICITY REGULATORY COMMISSION

Mr. Engjell Cuci – Chairman

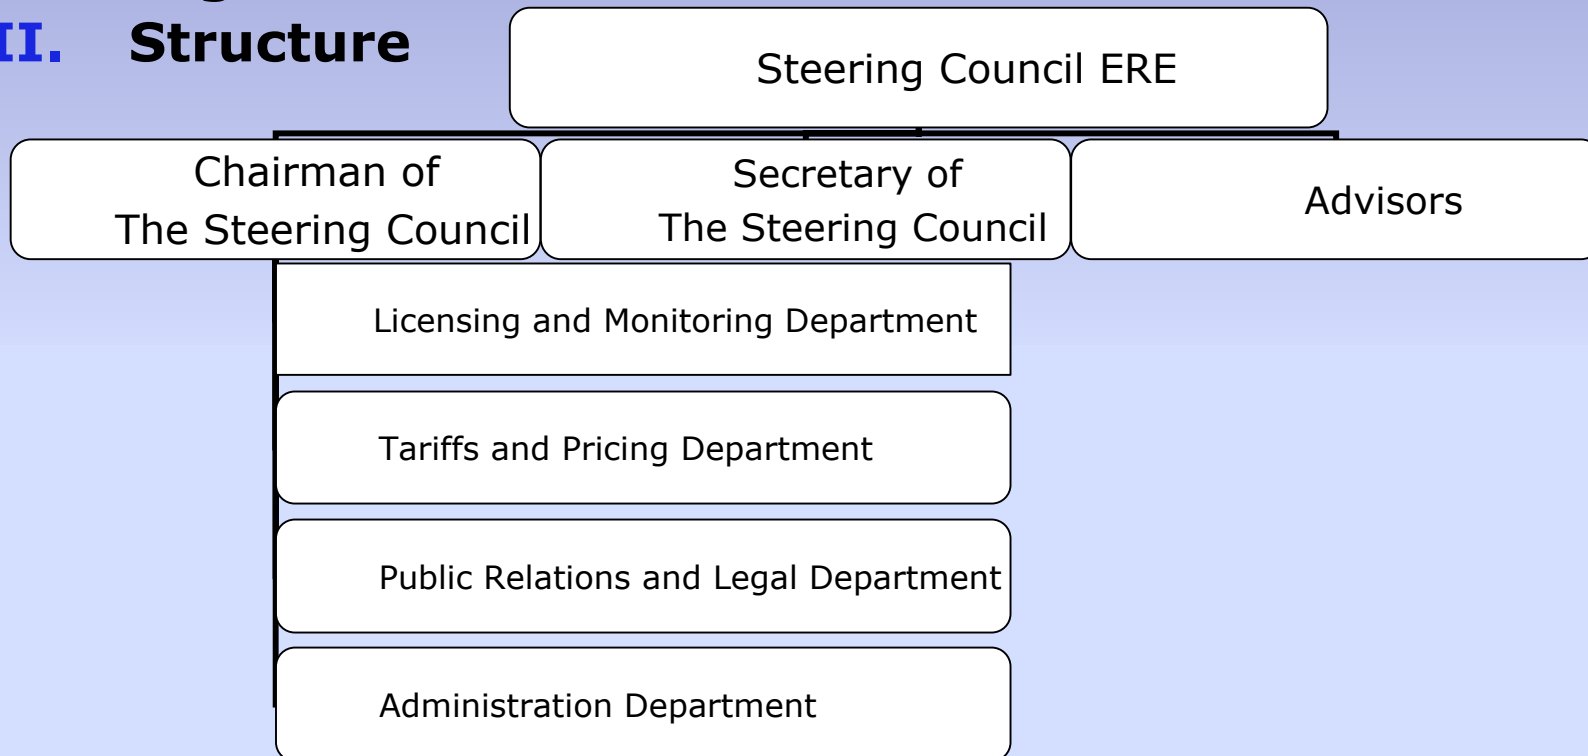

ERA- Albania

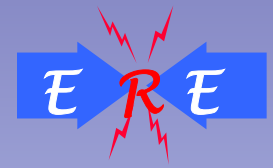

July 8, 2002

What does ERE represent- Legal-Grounds- Structure

- I. ERE is a independent institution
- II. Legal Grounds
- III. Structure

I. ERE's Activity Start

II. Principles

- Balancing the interests of Consumers and Investors;
- Independence;
- Transparency.

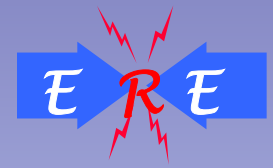

III. Tasks

- Licensing the companies;
- Approving the tariffs and prices;
- Consumer protection.

- Cooperation with NARUC and USAID.
- Participation on full membership basis in ERRA.
- Technical assistance and Cooperation with Pierce Atwood financed by USAID.
- Participation in the technical assistance project regarding the Southeastern European energy systems SEETEC financed by CIDA.

Reform in the Energy Sector – -Main Goals - Results

- Establishing a financially and technically strong electrical power industry.
- Establishing an efficient staff as well as transparent, legal and regulator.
- Restructuring KESH through separation in distribution, transmission and generation companies.
- Introduction of the private capital and investments by potential and strategic investors.
- A competitive electrical power market according to EU and the Thessaloniki Agreement to create a electrical power regional market.