

Resolution Honoring Utah Commissioner Clark D. Jones

WHEREAS, Clark D. Jones' appointment to the Public Service Commission of Utah in 1995 represents another milestone in his distinguished career of public service; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones graduated from the University of Nevada, and completed his post-graduated study at the University of Utah in Salt lake City. Mr. Jones then served as an officer in the United States Army Artillery Branch for two years following school; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones is a Certified Public Accountant and was a partner in the firm of Main, LaFrentz and Company (now KPMG Peat Marwick). Mr. Jones was President of Summit Family Restaurants, Inc., a Salt Lake City-based restaurant company prior to his appointment to the Utah Public Service Commission; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones served on the Board of Directors of the Utah Restaurant Association and the National Restaurant Association. He is past Chairman of the Utah Opera Company and past President of the Sugarhouse Rotary Club; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones served on the Board of Directors of the Gas Research Institute Advisory Board; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones has been an active and valuable member of the NARUC Committee on Gas, frequently making himself available to assist NARUC achieve a greater understanding of the issues affecting the natural gas industry. His comments, observations, and insightful questions have helped his colleagues achieve a greater understanding of issues affecting the natural gas industry; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Jones' hard work, fairness, and practical approach combined with his good sense of humor have set a high standard which the Chairman and other members of the NARUC Committee on Gas will greatly miss,
now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Directors of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC) convened in its 2001 Winter Committee Meetings in Washington D.C. formally recognizes the exemplary abilities and efforts of Commissioner Jones and wishes him the best in all future endeavors.

Sponsored by the Committee on Gas

Adopted by the NARUC Board of Directors, February 28, 2001.