

Resolution Honoring Maryland Commissioner Glenn F. Ivey

---

WHEREAS, Maryland Public Service Commissioner Glenn F. Ivey assumed his post March 18, 1998 as another milestone in his distinguished career of public service; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ivey graduated from Princeton University before getting his Juris Doctor from Harvard; and

WHEREAS, Before coming to NARUC and the Maryland Commission, Mr. Ivey acted as Senior Legislative Assistant to U.S. Representative John Conyers, an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, Counsel to the Senate Whitewater and Banking Committees, and Chief Counsel to Senator Tom Daschle; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ivey immediately became active in NARUC as a member of NARUC's Committee on Telecommunications frequently making himself available to assist NARUC in its advocacy and educational efforts on Capitol Hill and before federal agencies, testifying on at least one occasion on NARUC's behalf, now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), assembled in its November 2000 112th Annual Convention in San Diego, California formally recognizes the exemplary abilities and efforts of Commissioner Ivey and wishes him the best in his future endeavors.

---

Sponsored by the Committee on Telecommunications
Recommended by the Board of Directors.

Accepted in Convention November 15, 2000.