

Resolution Honoring Barclay Jackson

WHEREAS, Barclay Jackson has always shown a deep and far-ranging knowledge of public policy and a great compassion for people in need (like most of the members of this subcommittee); and

WHEREAS, Barclay has served as both Chair and Vice Chair with style and grace; and

WHEREAS, Barclay's passion for regulation led her to Africa to show them how to do it "right" – like us (or was she looking for Dean); and

WHEREAS, Barclay is renowned for her understanding of rules of order, as such, we now refer to them as Ms. Jackson's Rules of Order; and

WHEREAS, She was courageous enough to attempt to enforce them upon the subcommittee; and

WHEREAS, Barclay has declared her independence from utility regulation and has retreated to the "Portsmouth office"; and

WHEREAS, Discontinuing Barclay's prior daily commute of over 100 miles a day will improve the CO2 emissions in her area and increase the strategic petroleum reserves; and

WHEREAS, She was successful in organizing the subcommittee for one rendition of "The Colonel Bogey March" on the kazoo; and

WHEREAS, Barclay's independent spirit and willingness to work for the cause illustrates her State's motto of 'Live Free or Die'; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That it is with great respect for her professional and personal commitment to the Telecommunications Staff Subcommittee that the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), convened in its November 2004, Annual Convention in Nashville, Tennessee honors and thanks Barclay Jackson for her service to NARUC and wishes her success in her future endeavors.
