When offering CLE credits, NARUC abides by the rules and regulations of all applicable professional accrediting boards and agencies. NARUC will not be able to provide CLE credit for attendees who left a session before the program ended. To attain CLE compliance, ensure the integrity of our CLE processes and preserve the high value of our CLE offerings, attendees seeking credit, whom records verify full session participation will receive full credit.

To apply to a State not listed above, it is the individual's responsibility to collect any handouts or other information required by that States' accreditation board for individual submission and self-certification. Individual on-line credit applications are not accepted by all States.

1. Sign in by logging into the session using the email address supplied during registration!
