

Is There a Federal Infrastructure Package in our Future?

If you have not done so already, please download the NARUC app and complete the polling questions for this session

Survey Says!!!

Answer 1:

In fact, National Geographic estimates that for every 1 mile of interstate highway our nation has 26 miles of water main lines alone.

Survey Says!!!

Answer 2:

Over the next 5 years, approximately 17,000 miles of additional high-voltage transmission lines and significant oil and gas pipelines are planned for completion in the United States.

Survey Says!!!

Answer 3:

Approximately 240,000 drinking water main breaks occur annually in the United States.

Survey Says!!!

Answer 4:

Since 2007, the federal government has required cities to invest approximately $15 Billion dollars in new pipes, plants, and equipment to eliminate combined sewer overflows.

Survey Says!!!

Answer 5:

Cybersecurity: A recent survey found that 27% of United States employees would sell their computer passwords for less than $1,000.

Is There a Federal Infrastructure Package in our Future?