NARUC Responds to Devastating Tornadoes

WASHINGTON (December 13, 2021) — In response to the deadly tornadoes that have devastated several states over the weekend, the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners has issued the following statement:

“NARUC and its utility regulators stand ready to support our fellow communities affected by the catastrophic swath of deadly tornadoes. Our thoughts are with those who have lost loved ones, homes, businesses and face the daunting challenge of recovering and rebuilding their lives.”

—NARUC President Judith Williams Jagdmann, Virginia State Corporation Commission

About NARUC

NARUC is a non-profit organization founded in 1889 whose members include the governmental agencies that are engaged in the regulation of utilities and carriers in the fifty states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. NARUC's member agencies regulate telecommunications, energy, and water utilities. NARUC represents the interests of state public utility commissions before the three branches of the federal government.
