

2022 NARUC Annual Meeting and Education Conference

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Innovative/Disruptive Technology and Regulation

Driving IIJA, IRA and Utility Transportation Electrification Programs in the Direction of Energy Justice

2022 NARUC Annual Meeting and Education Conference

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Innovative/Disruptive Technology and Regulation

Moderator:

- Hon. Katherine Peretick, Michigan

Panelists:

- Torrey Lyons, U.S. Joint Office of Energy and Transportation
- Yok Potts, Smart Electric Power Alliance (SEPA)
- Jasmine McAdams, UC Berkeley

2022 NARUC Annual Meeting and Education Conference

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Innovative/Disruptive Technology and Regulation

New NARUC Transportation Electrification Resources

- Models for Incorporating Equity in Transportation Electrification
- Electric Vehicle Interoperability: Considerations for Public Utility Regulators
- Mini Guide on Transportation Electrification: State-Level Roles and Collaboration among Public Utility Commissions, State Energy Offices, and Departments of Transportation

Find them on the app under “NARUC CPI Resources”

- Supplements 2019 NARUC publication Electric Vehicles: Key Trends, Issues, and Considerations for State Regulators

2022 NARUC Annual Meeting and Education Conference

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Innovative/Disruptive Technology and Regulation

Member Support from NARUC CPI

Direct Assistance:

- Interconnection and Grid Services, Nov 2022-July 2023 see Jeff Loiter
- Incorporating Resilience into Grid Planning, 2023-2024 see Will McCurry

Research and Peer Exchange highlights for 2023:

- Storage (new)
- Offshore wind (new)
- Energy justice (workshops)
- Electric vehicles (workshops)
- DER-integration and compensation
- Performance-based regulation

New resources, upcoming webinars, and in person events in app under “NARUC CPI Resources” see CPI 2-pager_Nov 2022