

Water and Electric Cybersecurity: Stakeholder Perspectives and Partnerships

TITLE:

Crit-Ex 16.2 at Muscatatuck Urban Training Center

LEAD-IN:

At Muscatatuck Urban Training Center in Indiana, cyber training is happening which could mean the difference between a safe water supply for Americans and a successful terrorist hacking attack.

REPORTER:

Master Sgt. Brad Staggs, Atterbury-Muscatatuck Public Affairs
(bradley.a.staggs.mil@mail.mil 317.247.3300 ext. 41610)

VIDEOGRAPHER:

Master Sgt. Staggs and 1st Lt. Brandon Rex, Atterbury-Muscatatuck Public Affairs
(brandon.l.rex.mil@mail.mil 317.247.3300 ext. 61895)

FONT:

00:11:00 - Master Sgt. Brad Staggs, Atterbury-Muscatatuck Public Affairs
00:26:00 - Jennifer De Medeiros, Emergency Services Program Manager, Indiana Department of Homeland Security
00:51:29 - Eric W. Sporre, FBI Deputy Assistant Director, Cyber Division

RUNTIME: 01:21:06

VIRIN: 160524-Z-YX241-001

Indiana Executive Council on Cybersecurity

Indiana Executive Council on Cybersecurity

Government Service

Finance

Defense

Energy

Water/Wastewater

Communications

Healthcare

Elections

Economic Development

Workforce Development

Personal Identifiable Information

Public Awareness & Training

Emergency Services & Exercise

Cyber Sharing

Policy

Cyber Pre & Post Incident

Legal/Insurance

Local Government

Strategic Resource

Water and Electric Cybersecurity: Stakeholder Perspectives and Partnerships