NARUC Statement on New FERC Commissioners

WASHINGTON (June 14, 2024) — Three new members of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission were confirmed by the U.S. Senate and the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners has issued the following statement:

“On behalf of the Association and its members, I want to extend congratulations to Commissioners David Rosner, Lindsay S. See and Judy W. Chang on their confirmations as new members of FERC. NARUC has a longstanding collegial relationship with FERC and the full complement of commissioners provides an opportunity for more enhanced discussions. We look forward to working with the commissioners in their new roles.”

— Greg R. White, NARUC Executive Director

About NARUC

NARUC is a non-profit organization founded in 1889 whose members include the governmental agencies that are engaged in the regulation of utilities and carriers in the fifty states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. NARUC's member agencies regulate telecommunications, energy, and water utilities. NARUC represents the interests of state public utility commissions before the three branches of the federal government.
